

OldSchool – comfort of rest.

OldSchool is a harmony of tradition and modernity, design and ergonomics.

OldSchool

Iker, Polish manufacturer of modern furniture presents the Oldschool collection by Iker Design project.

Seats from the collection is a combination of vintage, latest technology and the high quality finish.

Collection includes three models – a bench and two kinds of armchair.

A profiled back and a high seat provides furniture's comfort. The novelty in the collection is the armchair with lower, less extensive back and without a headrest. The OldSchool collection finds itself great in private interiors – in the living room as a set of leisure furniture and in public, eg. in all kind of waiting room.

The Oldschool collection was made of the highest quality materials. The customer can choose the way of finishing upholstery from among fabrics and leathers from a probe, and a legs colour in black, wenge or natural.
